KC MAN SENTENCED FOR METH CONSPIRACY

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Kansas City, Mo., man was sentenced in federal court today for participating in a conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

Steven G. Roden, 27, of Kansas City, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Gary A. Fenner this morning to five years and 10 months in federal prison without parole.

On April 7, 2004, Roden pleaded guilty to participating in a conspiracy to distribute five grams or more of methamphetamine on Feb. 20, 2003.

Co-defendant Michelle R. Vasquez, 31, of Kansas City, pleaded guilty on April 14, 2004, to her role in the methamphetamine conspiracy.

The co-defendants admitted that Vasquez met with an undercover law enforcement officer on Feb. 20, 2003, in North Kansas City, where they awaited the arrival of Roden, who was delivering the methamphetamine. After Roden experienced car trouble, Vasquez arranged for the location of the methamphetamine transaction to be moved to a motel room in Kansas City.

After the co-defendants and undercover officer arrived at the motel room, the officer provided Roden with $1,000 and Roden, in turn, provided the officer with 14 grams of methamphetamine, Graves said.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney David M. Ketchmark and Special Assistant U.S. Attorney Matt Wolesky. It was investigated by the Metro Meth Task Force.
